GEORGIA BASEBALL ON THE INTERNET/RADIO/TV

Fans wishing to follow all the action of the 2023 University of Georgia baseball season can tune in to The Georgia Bulldog Sports Network and online at georgiadogs.com. The Georgia Gameday LIVE Mobile app (georgiadogs.com/wireless/) is another option as well as SEC Network+ for selected games.

As part of the Georgia Bulldog Sports Network from JMI/Learfield, Georgia baseball games will be heard locally on WRFC 960 AM, The Ref.

The veteran Bulldog team of Jeff Dantzler and David Johnston will serve as announcers on the broadcasts. All games will be produced through JMI/Learfield in Winston Salem, N.C.

Fan can listen to every game free online through georgiadogs.com. Also, Georgia baseball home games not selected for cable television will have live streaming video available on georgiadogs.com. Matt Stewart and Jason Jacobs return again this season to call most of the action for games televised at Foley Field on SEC Network+ (SECN+).

GEORGIA AIMS TO POWER PAST FOES

Preseason All-SEC outfielder Connor Tate returns for one final season wearing the Red and Black.

The 2023 version of the Georgia Bulldogs should feature one of the best offenses in recent memory, according to Ike Cousins head baseball coach Scott Stricklin. In fact, it could be his best in this his 10th season at the helm.

"We have a lot of power, top to bottom, and we should score runs," said Stricklin.

The Bulldogs welcome back 21 returning lettermen including six starting position players plus 12 pitchers who logged innings a year ago. Also, Georgia added 18 newcomers including four graduate transfers that will bolster the pitching staff and infield depth.

"We have a lot of talented pieces on the mound, and the young arms have tremendous upside," Stricklin added.

The Lineup

For the second year in a row, the Bulldogs will field one of the most experienced lineups in the country. Graduate outfielders Ben Anderson and Connor Tate return for their final season along with Samford graduate transfer Will David and Yale graduate transfer Mason LaPlante.

In 2022, Georgia hit .284 with a .460 slugging percentage, a .381 on base percentage and blasted 81 home runs in 59 games. After spirited competition in the fall, the Opening Day lineup could feature the following with more battles on tap in the early part of 2023:

Potential Starters: Bulldog, Cl., (2022 Statistics)

C: Fernando Gonzalez, Jr., (.258-4-22, .424 SLG%, .368 OB%)

1B: Charlie Condon, RFr., n/a

2B: Will David, Graduate, (.303-5-29, .434 SLG%, .412 OB% @ Samford)

3B: Parks Harber, Jr., (.307-13-53, .528 SLG%, .365 OB%)

SS: Sebastian Murillo, Jr., (.283-0-18, .333 SLG%, .390 OB% @ Long Beach)

LF: Connor Tate, Graduate, (.345-13-58, .614 SLG%, .436 OB%)

CF: Ben Anderson, Graduate, (.274-9-34, .453 SLG%, .386 OB%)

RF: Cole Wagner, Soph., (.276-6-21, .431 SLG%, .359 OB%)

DH/C/OF: Corey Collins, Jr., (.256-11-37, .453 SLG%, .387 OB%)

Pitching

Junior left-hander Jaden Woods (1-1, 4.80 ERA, 3 SV), junior left-hander Liam Sullivan (4-3, 4.62 ERA), senior right-hander Nolan Crisp (1-4, 5.12 ERA) and junior left-hander Luke Wagner (5-3, 6.15 ERA) all return with starting experience and will contend for spots in the rotation. Last year, Georgia managed to hold opponents to a .259 batting average and tallied 563 strikeouts, however as the injuries mounted, Georgia struggled to have enough pitching to finish a weekend series. As a result, the ERA settled at 5.67, which was the highest since 2010, and quite a contrast from the 2020 staff that finished with a 2.52 mark. The Bulldogs brought in an array of pitchers to round out the 2023 staff after six pitchers signed professional contracts including a pair of All-Americans in ace Jonathan Cannon and closer Jack Gowen.

The veteran additions are former Tulane closer junior Zach DeVito (4-1, 4.01 ERA, 9 SV), Elon graduate transfer Kyle Greenier (4-2, 2.93 ERA, 4 SV) and Wofford graduate transfer closer Dalton Rhadans (7-4, 3.72 ERA, 10 SV).

Several young Bulldog pitchers will look for an increased role including sophomore right-hander Chandler Marsh (4-1, 3.74 ERA) who emerged as a reliable reliever in high-leverage situations a year ago. There are five freshmen in right-handers Leighton Finley (Richmond Hill HS), Blake Gillespie (Medway HS), Matthew Hoskins (Peachtree Ridge HS) and Kolten Smith (Forest HS) plus left-hander Jarvis Evans (Ga. Premier Academy).

The Schedule

Georgia's 56-game schedule features 34 contests at Foley Field. The 30-game Southeastern Conference slate includes SEC home series with South Carolina, Kentucky, Arkansas, Tennessee and LSU. Georgia's SEC road trips will take them to Auburn, Vanderbilt, Florida, defending champion Ole Miss and to Missouri.

The Bulldogs will play a three-game series with in-state rival Georgia Tech (one game each on campus and at Coolray Field in Lawrenceville) and a two-game set with Clemson to highlight the non-conference action. The season begins Feb. 17 with a nine-game stretch at Foley Field starting with a series against Jacksonville State.

The top 12 teams in the league will advance to the SEC Tournament slated for May 23-28 in Hoover, Ala. NCAA Regional and Super Regional action gets underway in June, and the final eight teams standing will battle it out at the College World Series in Omaha, Neb., from June 16-26.

Scott STRICKLIN

Ike Cousins Head Baseball Coach
10th Season at UGA
19th overall as a head coach
(Kent State '95)

#10

Georgia's Ike Cousins Head Baseball Coach Scott Stricklin has returned the Bulldogs to one of the top programs in the country. In April of 2021, he agreed to a contract extension through 2026. The 2023 season will be his 19th year as a head coach including his 10th with the Bulldogs.

Since arriving at UGA, Stricklin, 50, has created an atmosphere of excitement around the program, starting with the current student-athletes, extending to former lettermen and to Georgia baseball fans around the state. He has organized numerous lettermen functions to help reunite former players and steered the $12 million Foley Field Revival project that was completed prior to the 2015 season. He has engaged the fan base with the annual First Pitch banquets featuring Hall of Famers John Smoltz, Phil Niekro and Chipper Jones, former Atlanta Braves standout Jeff Francoeur along with Bulldog legends and Major Leaguers Gordon Beckham, Kyle Farmer, World Series champion Alex Wood and All-Star Jared Walsh.

Stricklin graduated magna cum laude with a bachelor's degree in marketing from Kent State in 1995. He later returned to the Golden Flashes as head coach for nine seasons before being hired by the University of Georgia on June 3, 2013. His highlights with the Bulldogs include the following:

2022: Posted a 36-23 record and finished second in the SEC Eastern Division with a 15-15 league mark while overcoming injuries to their starting pitching staff during the year.

*Spent the entire regular season ranked among the top 25 teams and garnered a No. 2 seed to the NCAA Chapel Hill (N.C.) Regional, going 1-2.

*Pitchers Jonathan Cannon and Jack Gowen were named All-Americans.

*Outfielder Ben Anderson earned SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year honors.

*Six Bulldogs graduated.

*Twenty Bulldogs made the SEC Spring Academic Honor Roll or SEC First-Year Academic Honor Roll.

2021: Spent 11 weeks in the nation's top 25 rankings and reached as high as No. 5 before a slew of injuries eventually took its toll and finished 31-25.

*Played four teams that were ranked No. 1 at one point during the year and managed to go 13-17 in the SEC to earn a No. 8 seed for the conference tournament. Georgia went 1-2 with a win over LSU at tournament.

*Went 8-14 against top 10 teams including a winning a road series over No. 1 Vanderbilt, which marked the Commodores only home series loss.

*Outfielder Connor Tate earned ABCA/Rawlings All-South Region second team honors while catcher/designated hitter Corey Collins and pitcher Jaden Woods were named Freshman All-SEC by the league coaches.

*Woods earned second team Freshman All-America honors by Perfect Game/Rawlings.

*Eleven Bulldogs earned their degree, and a school record 27 Bulldogs made either the Spring SEC Academic Honor Roll or the SEC First-Year Academic Honor Roll, eclipsing the mark of 26 set in 2020.

2020: The Bulldogs had jumped out to a 7-0 start, swept rival Georgia Tech for the third time in the past four years and tallied a 14-4 mark when the season was canceled. Georgia finished ranked No. 2 nationally (USA Today Sports Top 25).

*Four Bulldogs signed professional contracts including Emerson Hancock (1st Round, sixth overall) who was just the fourth player in school history to be both a 1st round draft pick and 1st team Academic All-American.

*School record 26 Bulldogs made the SEC Academic Honor Roll.

*Georgia was the only SEC program to receive NCAA APR recognition.

*10 Bulldogs earned a degree, and the program posted a record 3.14 GPA for the spring.

2019: Posted a 46-17 record. For the second straight year set a school record for Fielding Percentage (.980).

*More than 83,000 fans packed Foley Field, the most since 2009 when a modern era record of more than 93,000 cheered on the Bulldogs.

*Registered one of their best regular seasons in school history in 2019, going 42-14 including a school record 21-9 in the SEC.

*Georgia advanced to the semifinals of the SEC Tournament and played host to another NCAA Regional as a top eight National Seed. This was the first time in school history that Georgia served as an NCAA host site as a National Seed in back-to-back seasons.

*Only the third time the program made back-to-back NCAA Regionals.

*Junior third baseman/closer Aaron Schunk was named the 2019 John Olerud Award recipient as the nation's top two-way player by the College Baseball Foundation

*Junior SS Cam Shepherd received a Gold Glove for his play from ABCA/Rawlings.

*Schunk and Hancock were consensus All-America selections.

*Eight Bulldogs were selected in the 2019 MLB Draft with six opting to turn professional and another signing a free agent contract.

*Nineteen Bulldogs made the SEC Academic or SEC First Year Honor Roll and pitcher Tim Elliott made the Academic All-District team.

*Compiled an 11-game winning streak during the season and captured a series over No. 7 South Carolina, the first over a top 10 team since 2011.

*Three Bulldogs were drafted and signed professional contracts.

MLB DRAFT: The Bulldogs have had 38 players drafted in the Stricklin era including 16 in the top 10 rounds. Pitchers Emerson Hancock (2020) and Robert Tyler (2016) were first round draft picks. Also of note, first baseman Jared Walsh, who was a 39th round pick in 2015 by the Los Angeles Angels, was named to the 2021 MLB All-Star Team.

DID YOU KNOW?

Georgia was one of just two schools to have earned a top eight National Seed for the NCAA Championships in both 2018 and 2019. Georgia was a No. 8 seed in 2018 and a No. 4 seed in 2019, which marked the best in school history. Then in 2020, the Bulldogs, ranked as high as No. 2, were poised to have a special year, selling out its season tickets, when the COVID-19 pandemic hit.

KENT STATE HIGHLIGHTS:

Led his alma mater to five NCAA Regionals and the 2012 College World Series (CWS) as head coach from 2005-13.

*Posted a 350-188 record over nine seasons, winning five Mid-American Conference regular season crowns and five MAC Tournament titles.

*30 KSU players were selected in the Major League Baseball draft.

*From 2010-12, the team registered a perfect 1,000 score in the NCAA's Academic Performance Rate (APR) report. KSU was one of only 16 schools in the country to reach this academic accomplishment and the only public institution on the list.

*The Golden Flashes were honored in Omaha in 2012 for having the highest team Grade Point Average (GPA) of all the eight participants at the CWS, owning a 3.09 GPA.

*Directed Kent State to its finest season in school history in 2012, posting 47 victories including a 21-game winning streak and their first trip to the CWS where it eliminated top-ranked Florida and finished tied for fifth.

*KSU wound up with a final national ranking of No. 5, the highest ranking in team history.

PLAYING CAREER: A two-time All-Mid-American Conference catcher, handled pitching staffs that were ranked No. 1 and No. 2 in the nation in earned run average during his final two playing seasons at KSU.

*A 23rd round draft pick of the Minnesota Twins in 1993, he played five seasons of professional baseball and reached the Triple-A level with the Twins.

RECRUITING: Daeley has produced nationally-ranked classes according to Perfect Game USA including as high as No. 3

BEFORE UGA: Daeley arrived at Georgia from Kent State in June of 2013 where he was a member of Scott Stricklin's staff for nine years. As the hitting coach at KSU, Daeley helped develop 30 All-Mid-American Conference position players, three MAC Players of the Year and six All-Americans. He was a part of the KSU program that made five NCAA Regional appearances highlighted by the 2012 College World Series. A total of 36 Flashes were selected in the Major League Baseball Draft from 2005-13 including 26 during his final five seasons at KSU.

Daeley served as a volunteer assistant for two years at Wake Forest after playing three years in the San Francisco Giants organization. Daeley played center field and batted leadoff for the Demon Deacons in 1998 and 1999 and was the catalyst for back-to-back Atlantic Coast Conference Tournament Championship teams. He earned second team All-ACC honors in 1999 with 27 doubles and 83 runs scored, the second most in a single season in Wake Forest baseball history.

A 31st round draft pick of the Giants following the 1999 season, Daeley played with Shreveport, San Jose and Salem-Keizer. Daeley came to Wake Forest from Cypress Junior College in California where he hit .350 and ranked among the school's all-time leaders with 98 runs scored and 43 stolen bases.

A native of Orange, Calif., Daeley received a business degree from Wake Forest in December 2002. Scott and his wife, Alison, have two daughters, Sloan (14) and Paige (13).

COACHING STAFF

Sean KENNY

Asst. Coach/Pitching
6th Season at UGA
(Eastern Michigan '97)

#40

Since joining the Bulldogs in June of 2017, Sean Kenny has made a dramatic impact with the program, helping Georgia to a pair of NCAA Tournament appearances as national seeds, top 25 rankings and establishing school records by the pitching staff.

In July of 2021, Kenny received a three-year contract extension. The highlights with the Bulldogs include the following:

2022: A 36-23 record and 2nd place in the SEC Eastern Division at 15-15

*Advanced to NCAA Chapel Hill (N.C.) Regional as a No. 2 seed

*Ranked among the nation's top 25 all year and reached as high as No. 5.

*Five pitchers drafted including Jonathan Cannon (3rd, Chicago White Sox) and one pitcher signed as a free agent

2021: Finished 31-25 overall (13-17 SEC)

*Spent 11 weeks in the top 25 national rankings and peaked at No. 5

*Freshmen accounted for 52 percent of the starts and 44 percent of the innings pitched after a slew of injuries hit the staff.

*Held opponents to a .226 batting average and tallied 570 strikeouts, and both of those marks rank second best in school history.

*Won a road series over No. 1 Vanderbilt (VU's only home series loss)

*Pitcher Jaden Woods was named a Freshman All-American by Perfect Game/Rawlings along with Freshman All-SEC by the league coaches.

*Pitchers Ryan Webb (4th Round, Cleveland) and Ben Harris (8th Round, L.A. Dodgers) were drafted.

2020: Team went 14-4 and finished ranked No. 2

*Campaign ended after 18 games due to the COVID-19 pandemic

*All-American pitchers Emerson Hancock (1st Round, Seattle) and Cole Wilcox (3rd Round, San Diego) combined to sign for $9 million

*The staff had a 2.52 ERA and held opponents to a .206 batting average.

*Pitchers Jonathan Cannon and Will Childers earn Freshman All-American.

2019: One of the best regular seasons in school history, going 42-14 including a school record 21-9 in the SEC.

*Advanced to the semifinals of the SEC Tournament

*Played host to another NCAA Regional as a top eight National Seed for the second straight year, a first in school history.

*Final record of 46-17 record

*Pitching staff set school records for strikeouts (601) and an opponent's batting average (.200) and that was the lowest in the SEC.

*Squad's 3.24 ERA was the second best in school history, trailing only the 1958 team mark of 2.97. Tallied 19 saves and allowed just 235 runs, both marks that ranked second best in school history.

*Third baseman/closer Aaron Schunk, a second round draft pick of Colorado, was named the 2019 John Olerud Award recipient as the nation's top two-way player by the College Baseball Foundation.

*Schunk and Emerson Hancock were consensus All-America selections

*Eight Bulldogs were selected in the 2019 Major League Baseball Draft with six opting to turn professional and another signing as a free agent.

*Pitcher Tony Locey, a third round pick of St. Louis, went 11-2 to become Georgia's first 11-game winner since 1990.

*Emerson Hancock and Cole Wilcox garnered USA Collegiate National Team summer invitations.

2018: In his first year with the Bulldogs in 2018, the pitching staff helped Georgia post its finest season in a decade at 39-21 (18-12 SEC)

*Earned a No. 8 National Seed for the NCAA Tournament and advanced to the NCAA Athens Regional Final.

*Georgia's team ERA of 3.97 was 1.05 runs lower compared to the 2017 squad, and the staff established a school record by holding opponents to a .236 batting average while tallying 532 strikeouts.

*Junior Kevin Smith (8-1, 3.69 ERA), signed as a seventh round draft pick of the New York Mets. Aaron Schunk garnered Third Team All-America honors from the NCBWA as a utility player and was an Olerud Award finalist.

*Pitcher/outfielder C.J. Smith was named a Second Team Freshman All-American by the NCBWA.

Home Runs For Hometown Rivals Special Olympics Baseball Game

Each year, the University of Georgia baseball team participates in various community service events. In eight of the past 11 years, Bulldog student-athletes from various sports have staged a baseball game at Foley Field featuring Special Olympic players. The game was canceled in 2020-21 due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

The fundraiser benefits Athens-Clarke County Special Olympics. The event is billed as "Home Runs for Hometown Rivals" and features a game between special needs Clarke-County athletes from the Westside of Athens versus Eastside players. Sometimes rain forces the event indoors, but a good time is still had by all.

The unique event features pregame ceremonies, introductions and the student-athletes help the participants swing bats and run the bases. The event has raised more than $2,000 annually through ticket sales, concessions, donations and corporate sponsorships.

Dual-Threat Dawgs

In the modern era of Georgia Baseball, there have been a handful of two-way Bulldogs. In fact, 3B/Closer Aaron Schunk was honored as the 2019 John Olerud Award winner by the College Baseball Foundation as the nation's top two-way player after being a finalist for the award in 2018. Tucker Bradley in 2020 was the last Bulldog to excel as an outfielder and relief pitcher. Luke Wagner has spent most of his career as a pitcher but has seen time in the outfield too.

One of the greatest dual-threat Bulldogs was All-American LHP/DH Derek Lilliquist. A first round draft pick of Atlanta in 1987 (6th overall), he spent eight years pitching in the Majors and then served as the pitching coach for the St. Louis Cardinals and Washington Nationals.

Here's a look at a few of the top two-way Bulldogs since Lilliquist who finished his Bulldog career with a .318 batting average, 35 home runs, 135 RBI plus went 31-12 with a 3.30 ERA in 316 innings pitched.

FOLEY FIELD

DID YOU KNOW?

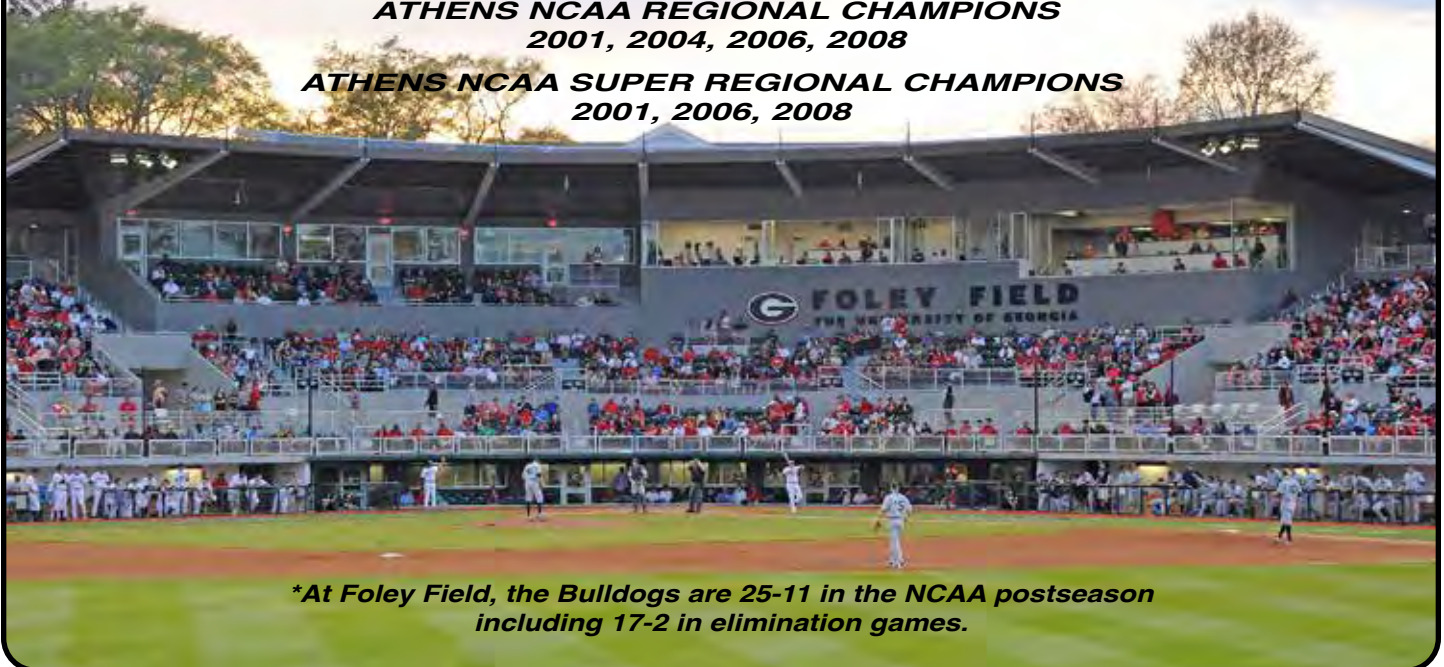

Foley Field has played host to numerous post-season events, starting with the 1987 SEC Tournament and continuing with NCAA Regionals and Super Regionals. Georgia has won four NCAA Regionals and three Super Regionals at Foley Field.

The Garden Club Terrace

A special dedication ceremony took place on April 2, 2016 in the right field fan area of Foley Field when it was officially named "The Garden Club Terrace." This honors former Athletic Director of Administration Reid Parker, former Bulldog golf coach Dick Copas, and former Faculty Athletic Representative Dr. Bill Powell.

This trio of remarkable men served the University of Georgia, the UGA Athletic Association, and the Athens community for more than 30 years. They called themselves "The Garden Club" for their informal meetings. A permanent plaque honoring the trio was unveiled that day (at right).

It is located by the right field fence and features Parker, Copas and Powell. Members of the Parker, Copas and Powell families, along with J. Reid Parker Director of Athletics Greg McGarity were in attendance at the dedication ceremony. Then, they all cheered on the Bulldogs to a 12-4 win over No. 21 Alabama.

Frank Foley:
Bulldog letterman
and Georgia fan

Judge Frank Foley is considered one of Georgia's all-time greats for his contributions both on and off the field. Foley was a part of the 1908 Southern championship team that recorded a mark of 20-2.

He was a distinguished alumnus who is remembered by many as a kind and caring gentleman. His enthusiasm for the University of Georgia was second to none.

A $12 million project known as the "Foley Field Revival" was completed in January of 2015 and included a new locker room. The Foley family of Columbus, Ga. is synonymous with Georgia Baseball. They provided the lead gift which provided the foundation for this latest stadium renovation. On Opening Day of 2015, Frank D. Foley III (above middle) was recognized and received a Bulldog jersey from UGA President Jere W. Morehead and J. Reid Parker Director of Athletics Greg McGarity.

Home of The Bulldogs

Foley Field has served as Georgia's home since 1966, and the stadium was constructed in 1990. The Foley family of Columbus is synonymous with Georgia baseball.

The large-scale measures of the 2015 revival included the following: Redesigning the stadium's main entrance, additional restrooms and concession areas, an expanded press box, club-level and field-level seating, improvements to the dug-outs, Georgia's locker room and team lounge, training room and batting cages. In 2013, improvements to Foley Field included the right field area formerly known as "Kudzu Hill," (now the Garden Club Terrace), the installation of a new high-definition video scoreboard and new trees behind the outfield fence.

Foley Field has served as a memorable postseason advantage for the Bulldogs. Georgia is 25-11 in the NCAA postseason in Athens including 17-2 in elimination games.

Bulldog fans have witnessed Georgia clinch trips to the College World Series in 2001, 2006 and 2008. Also, the Bulldogs won an NCAA Regional at Foley Field in 2004 and eventually advanced to the CWS that year too.

*Georgia did not field a team in 1944-45 due to World War II.

Before Foley Field

The first home for Georgia baseball was Herty Field from 1886 until 1911. Then, it was Sanford Field (below) until 1943. Pond Lippett threw the first no-hitter at home in Georgia history, blanking Pittsburgh 6-0 in 1920. Fred Sale pitched a perfect game at Sanford Field in 1923, a 4-0 win over Virginia. It was the first perfect game in Bulldog history and one of only two to date.

After World War II, the Diamond Dogs played on a field with no name located on "Ag. Hill," where Stegeman Coliseum is today.

When construction for the Coliseum began in 1962, Georgia moved to its freshman field, which is next to where the Butts-Mehre building is now. In 1966, Georgia moved to its current location, and two years later, it was named Foley Field. On May 5, 1990, a $3.5 million refurbished Foley Field was dedicated and the latest upgrades came in 2015.

Georgia Advances To NCAA Regional And Seven Bulldogs Sign Pro Contracts

Bulldogs Return To NCAA Tournament

The 2022 Georgia Bulldogs posted a 36-23 record and finished second in the SEC Eastern Division with a 15-15 league mark while overcoming injuries to their starting pitching staff during the year. Georgia employed eight different weekend rotations including six different combinations in SEC action.

Georgia spent the entire regular season ranked among the top 25 teams. The Bulldogs garnered a No. 2 seed to the NCAA Chapel Hill (N.C.) Regional and went 1-2. Pitchers Jonathan Cannon and Jack Gowen were named All-Americans while outfielder Ben Anderson earned SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year honors.

Four Bulldogs graduated and another five were on track to finish by the end of the summer. The Bulldogs had 20 members on the SEC Spring Academic Honor Roll or First-Year SEC Academic Honor Roll.

Georgia batted .284 with 81 home runs while posting a 5.67 ERA and a .978 fielding percentage. The batting average and home runs were the best in the Scott Stricklin era that began in 2014 while the fielding mark tied for the third best mark in school history. Also, Georgia's staff tallied 563 strikeouts in only 59 games, which marked the third best total in school history. For the first time since 1998, Georgia went the entire season without playing an extra-inning game.

Top Performers In 2022

◆ Graduate identical twins Cole and Connor Tate led the Bulldogs in batting. Cole (.359-6-30) and Connor (.345-13-58) ended the year hitting No. 2 and 3 in the order. Cole, who missed three SEC series due to a stress fracture in his leg, was the only player keeping Connor from the team's Triple Crown. Also, Cole made the 2022 Southeast All-Region Second Team as well as the SEC Community Service team.

The Chicago White Sox selected Jonathan Cannon in the third round of the 2022 MLB Draft.

2022 Senior Day featured 10 Bulldogs with Ben Anderson and Connor Tate opting to return for their final season of eligibility in 2023.

◆ Junior RHP Jonathan Cannon (9-4, 4.02 ERA), who was a semifinalist for the Dick Howser Trophy, was named First Team All-SEC in a vote of the league coaches. He ended the regular season as the SEC leader in victories and ranked in the top 10 in ERA and Innings Pitched. He was named a Third Team All-American by Collegiate Baseball and the NCBWA as well as Southeast All-Region 1st Team by ABCA/Rawlings. Twice, he earned SEC Pitcher of the Week honors. The Chicago White Sox selected him in the third round of the 2022 MLB Draft.

◆ Graduate centerfielder Ben Anderson (.274-9-34), who served as a co-captain, became the first Bulldog baseball player to earn an NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship. Also, he was named the SEC Baseball Scholar-Athlete-of-the-Year honors in a vote of the leagues coaches. Anderson is a two-time CoSIDA Academic All-District selection. He plans to go to medical school following his baseball career. He has a degree in biochemistry and working on a masters in comparative biomedical sciences.

Anderson started 57 games in centerfield and posted a perfect fielding percentage in 142 total chances. He posted a team-best 31-game on base streak and thrice led off a game with a home run. He was the first Bulldog to do that in a season opener since at least 1970.

◆ Senior RHP Jack Gowen (2-0, 2.39 ERA, 10 SV), a co-captain, was named a first team All-American by the NCBWA. He was one of 10 finalists for the NCBWA Stopper of the Year Award and ranked second in the SEC in Saves. Gowen went 10-for-10 in save chances while the Bulldogs were 14-for-16 overall. In the SEC, Gowen went 2-0 with a 2.95 ERA and seven saves. He was a 20th round pick of the Miami Marlins in the 2022 MLB Draft.

◆ Sophomore LHP Jaden Woods (1-1, 4.80 ERA, 3 SV) matched his career-high with seven strikeouts in four scoreless innings of relief versus Alabama at the SEC Tournament. His saves came against Kentucky, No. 16 Florida and Kennesaw State. He received an invitation to the USA Baseball Collegiate National Team Summer Training Camp, performed well (1-0, 0.00 ERA, 3 app., 4 IP, 1H, 5K, 0BB) but did not make the final 26-man roster.

Georgia In The MLB Draft

◆ The 2022 Major League Baseball was 20 rounds, and the Bulldogs had six selections plus two undrafted free agents sign professional contracts.

Junior pitcher Jonathan Cannon was selected in the third round by the Chicago White Sox. In the ninth round, the Atlanta Braves selected senior second baseman Cory Acton. On the final day, four Bulldog pitchers were picked plus one more was signed as a free agent. Dylan Ross was drafted in the 13th round by the New York Mets; Shane Marshall in the 14th round by the Chicago Cubs; Garrett Brown in the 18th round by the Cubs; Jack Gowen in the 20th round by the Miami Marlins. Will Childers inked a free agent deal with the Milwaukee Brewers while Cole Tate did the same with the Minnesota Twins.

The Bulldogs extended their string to 50 straight seasons with at least one player signing a contract. Also, at least one Bulldog has been drafted every year since 1987.

20 Bulldogs Earn Academic Honors

◆ A total of 16 Bulldogs earned a spot on the SEC Academic Spring Honor Roll while four more made the SEC First-Year Academic Honor Roll.

The veteran Bulldogs were: Ben Anderson, Jonathan Cannon, Corey Collins, Max DeJong, Fernando Gonzalez, Parks Harber, Randon Jernigan, Bryce Melear, Trippe Moore III, Will Pearson, Michael Polk, Garrett Spikes, Liam Sullivan, Cole Tate, Connor Tate and Lane Watkins. The first-year Bulldogs to make the honor roll were: Chandler Marsh, Davis Rokose, Cole Wagner and Coleman Willis.

Bulldog Award Recipients

◆ The Jim Whatley Captain Awards went to graduate Ben Anderson (CF), and senior Jack Gowen (RHP).

◆ The Scholar-Athlete Award for the player with the highest GPA went to Ben Anderson.

◆ The Gordon Beckham MVP Award went to outfielder Connor Tate (.345 BA, 13 HR, 58 RBI)

◆ The Bert Kizer Award for the top first-year player on and off the field went to outfielder Cole Wagner (.276 BA, 6 HR, 21 RBI, 32 PO, 1.000 FLDG%).

◆ The Jim Umbricht Award for the most competitive Bulldog went to pitcher Jack Gowen (2-0, 2.39 ERA, 10 SV, 50K, 18BB, 37.2 IP).

◆ The Most Outstanding Senior Award went to Cole Tate. He batted a team-best .359 and fielded .970 in 42 starts at shortstop.

GEORGIA'S SEC TITLES

1933 SEC: 8-1 Overall: 12-3-1

First year of the SEC; Highest conference winning percentage (%)

1953 SEC: 12-4 Overall: 23-5

Beat Miss. St. 2-0 in a 3-game playoff between division leaders

1954 SEC: 11-4 Overall: 16-9

Beat Ole Miss 2-1 in 3-game playoff between division leaders

2001 SEC: 20-10 Overall: 47-22

Highest conference winning %; Advanced to CWS (T7th)

2004 SEC: 19-11 Overall: 45-23

Shared title with Arkansas (same win%); Advanced to CWS (T3rd)

2008 SEC: 20-9-1 Overall: 45-25-1

Highest conference winning%; Advanced to CWS Finals (2nd)

Note: In 1987, Georgia finished the regular season with the best SEC mark at 18-8 but the SEC title went to league tournament winner Miss. State. MSU went 4-0 in the tournament after going 13-13 during the year. Starting in 1988, the SEC title went to the regular season champion and the tournament winner received the league's automatic NCAA bid.

Note: Georgia has won five SEC Eastern Division titles (1955, 1975, 2001, 2004 and 2008). The SEC Championship format has varied since the inception of the league in 1933. Some years, the SEC has had divisions. In 1977, the league began holding an SEC Tournament following the regular season.

THIS IS SEC BASEBALL

The Southeastern Conference, with its storied 89-year history of athletic achievements and academic excellence, has built perhaps the greatest tradition of intercollegiate competition in baseball of any league in the country since its inception in 1933.

Tennessee claimed the 2022 SEC regular-season title after going 25-5 in league action. Also, the Volunteers won the 2022 SEC Tournament title over Florida in Hoover, Ala.

The SEC led all conferences with nine teams in the 2022 NCAA Tournament, and Ole Miss claimed the league's eighth national title in 13 years, beating Oklahoma in the CWS Finals. The Rebels were the seventh different SEC team to win a baseball national title. An SEC squad has appeared in the CWS 36 of the last 37 years when it was held (It was canceled in 2020 due to the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic).

An SEC team has made the CWS Championship series annually from 2008-2015 along with 2017-2019 and from 2021-2022.

Seven SEC players were selected in the first round (including competitive balance picks) of the 2022 MLB Draft. The SEC has now had a first round MLB selection each year since 1991 and 150 total in the first round during that time. Overall, 86 SEC players were selected during the three-day draft in 2022.

Did You Know?

- Georgia won the first baseball national title for the SEC in 1990 while LSU has collected six crowns since then (1991, '93, '96, 1997, 2000, '09), South Carolina (2010, '11) and Vanderbilt (2014, '19) have two while Florida (2017), Miss. State (2021) and Ole Miss (2022) have one.

- There have been eight runner-up finishes: Georgia (2008), Florida (2011), South Carolina (2012), Miss. State (2013), Vanderbilt (2015 & 2021), LSU (2017) and Arkansas (2018).

- Three student-athletes from the SEC were named to the 2021 Academic All-America Division I baseball team as selected by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA). Also of note in 2020, Georgia's Emerson Hancock was named a First Team Academic All-American.

- The 2022 Major League Baseball All-Star Game rosters included four players from four different SEC institutions. In 2021, 11 different SEC players made the All-Star team including Georgia's Jared Walsh (Los Angeles Angels).

- The 2022 World Series featured five former SEC players from four schools. Thirty players formerly from SEC schools were on active rosters of teams in the first two rounds of the 2022 playoffs. In the 2021 World Series, there were eight players on the Atlanta Braves and Houston Astros that played in the SEC.

The SEC Player of the Year began in 1993; the others followed: SEC Pitcher of the Year (2003), SEC Freshman of the Year (2000) and SEC Scholar Athlete of the Year (2004).

In 2008, Georgia became the first school in SEC history to sweep the SEC Player of the Year, Pitcher of the Year, Scholar Athlete of the Year and Coach of the Year awards. Gordon Beckham won the Player and Scholar Athlete awards while Joshua Fields was named the league's top pitcher and David Perno was the Coach of the Year.

*ACADEMIC ALL-SEC (*From 1971-83)

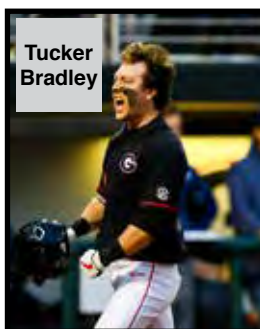

The Academic All-SEC team was developed to recognize the outstanding athletes who are also outstanding students. To be eligible, a student-athlete must: 1) have a 3.0 grade point average for either the past year or for their career; 2) be a sophomore or higher in academic classification; and 3) have 24 semester hours countable toward a degree. There were 19 Bulldogs honored 24 times during this period.

In 1984, the SEC developed the Academic Baseball Honor Roll to recognize those athletes who had a 3.0 grade point average (either cumulative or during the past year), and had 24 semester or 26 quarter hours countable toward a degree. Prior to the 1996-97 season, the SEC dropped the requirement of earning a letter for that season. Starting in 2002, the recipients were chosen from the previous calendar year. A total of 155 Bulldogs have been honored 286 times.

*Note: When the draft began in 1965, there were three phases. The winter session was phased out in 1986 and the secondary in 1987; SP=Secondary Phase; FA=Free Agent; Davis left UGA after one season and played at Manatee JC in 1981; DNS=did not sign and returned to UGA.

A total of 39 former Bulldogs have reached the Major League level. It began with Claud Derrick for the Philadelphia Athletics in 1909 and continued in 2022 with Kyle Farmer, Justin Grimm, Jared Walsh and Alex Wood. Walsh was the latest Bulldog to make his debut, getting the promotion in May of 2019. Also of note, there have been six UGA students who never lettered for Georgia but went on to become major league ballplayers: Bill Calhoun (1913), Hal Epps (1938, '40, '43-44), Jack Fisher (1959-69), Ralph Head (1923), Tully Sparks (1897, '99-1910) and Jon Warden (1968).

Looking back in MLB history, Derrick played on Connie Mack's World Championship teams in 1910 and 1911 and, while recovering from a broken ankle in Baltimore in 1912, he was the first roommate of a rookie pitcher named George Herman "Babe" Ruth. Nolen Richardson, a Georgia standout in football and basketball in the 1920s, played six years in the majors and returned to coach the Bulldogs in 1951. Johnny Rucker was featured in LIFE as a promising rookie in 1940.

While many Bulldogs enjoyed success throughout their career, one who stands out is Spurgeon "Spud" Chandler. Chandler was a part of seven World Series teams for the New York Yankees, including winners of six championships. Actually, he first played in Yankee Stadium as a member of the Bulldog football team. Georgia defeated New York University 7-6 on Nov. 7, 1931. Following his graduation in 1932, the Carnesville, Ga., native spent five years in the minors before returning to Yankee Stadium as a major leaguer. In his 11-year career, his finest season came in 1943. He led the league in Wins, Earned Run Average and Complete Games, going 20-4 with a 1.64 ERA and 20 complete games. He went 2-0 with a 0.50 ERA in the 1943 World Series, winning game one and pitching a shutout in the clinching game five over St. Louis. Wood was part of the 2020 World Series Champion Los Angeles Dodgers.

In 2022, Alex Wood became just the third Bulldog pitcher to log more than 1,100 career innings in the Majors.

MLB TRIVIA: Larry Littleton and former St. Louis Cardinal outfielder Michael Potter hold the MLB record for most career at bats by a non-pitcher without a hit. Littleton made the Indians 1981 team out of spring training. He made his debut in game two that season, pinch-hitting in the ninth inning. He grounded out to eventual Hall of Famer Robin Yount. His lone RBI came on a bases-loaded line out off Minnesota's Jerry Koonsman that Mickey Hatcher ran down. Most of his at-bats came as a pinch-hitter, and he started just four games over a 45-day span.

Academic All-Americans (voted on by *CoSIDA)

To be eligible to become a member of the Academic All-America team, a college scholar-athlete must be nominated by his sports information director, hold a minimum of 3.3 cumulative GPA on a 4.0 scale, be a starter or key reserve on the varsity and reached sophomore athletic and academic standing.

There are eight geographic districts across the country. Scholar-athletes must be first named to the All-District team and then they will be placed on the national ballot for consideration to determine the national Academic All-America Team.

GEORGIA MVP RECIPIENTS

GORDON BECKHAM MVP AWARD

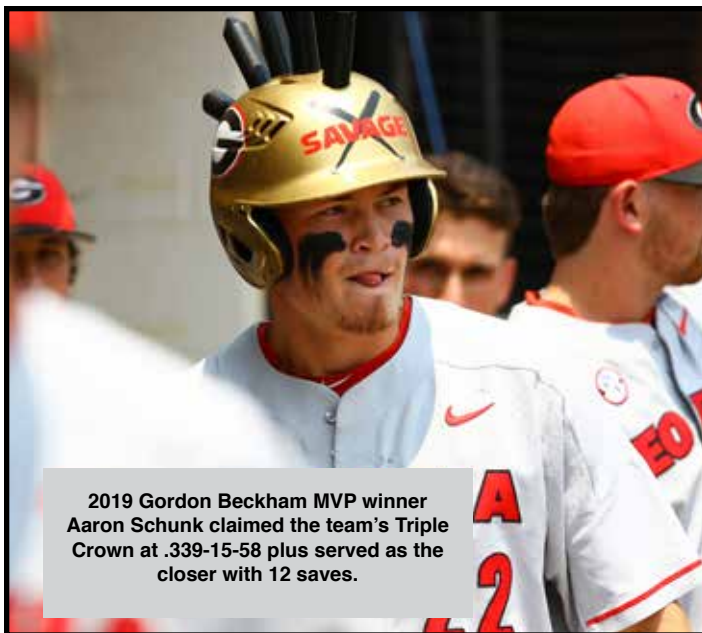

Starting in 2014, the annual Most Valuable Player (MVP) Award was named in honor of one of UGA's greatest players, All-American Gordon Beckham. He earned Southeastern Conference Player of the Year as well as SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year honors in his career.

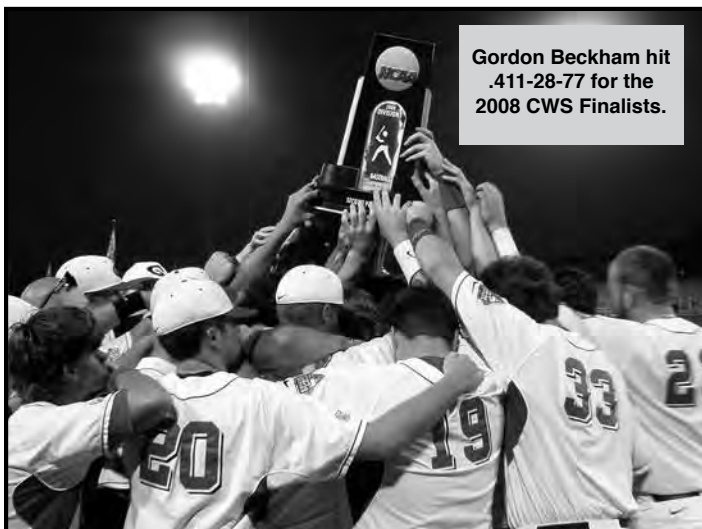

"Gordon possesses all the qualities a program is looking for in their most valuable player, and he continues to represent Georgia in a first class manner as a professional in the Major Leagues," said Ike Cousins Head Baseball Coach Scott Stricklin. "It's a tribute to how he valued the importance of excelling in the classroom and on the field as a Georgia Bulldog."

Beckham arrived at UGA in 2006 as an undrafted infielder and went on to establish himself as one of the best ever to wear the red and black. He was tabbed an All-American and an Academic All-American. He started all 197 games of his three-year career, leading Georgia to a pair of College World Series appearances including the 2008 CWS Finals.

He was a first round draft pick of the Chicago White Sox in 2008, made his MLB debut less than a year later and was named the 2009 American League Rookie of the Year by the MLB Players Association and The Sporting News.

2019 Gordon Beckham MVP winner Aaron Schunk claimed the team's Triple Crown at .339-15-58 plus served as the closer with 12 saves.

Gordon Beckham hit .411-28-77 for the 2008 CWS Finalists.

USA BASEBALL TEAM

USA Baseball, based in Cary, N.C., is the national governing body of amateur baseball in the United States and a member of the United States Olympic Committee (USOC).

The organization selects, trains, and supports the USA Baseball Team and a Junior Team which participates in international competitions, including the Olympic Games and World Championships.

While the first official exhibition baseball game in the Olympics was a 1912 contest in Stockholm, Sweden, reports exist that an unrecognized baseball game was played at the 1904 Games in St. Louis, Mo. A number of single game exhibitions were also played at the 1936, 1952, 1956, and 1964 Olympic Games. The 1992 Games in Barcelona was the debut of baseball as a medal sport.

OLYMPIC TEAM

1936 Henry Wagnon, C (Bostwick, Ga.)

Wagnon was one of 22 delegates to the International Sports Congress whose members demonstrated American Games to other nations in Berlin. Although other countries had planned to send teams for the baseball tournament, none did. So, the USA squad split into two teams and played a night game before a world-record crowd reported to be over 125,000. The World Amateurs defeated the USA Olympics 6-5.

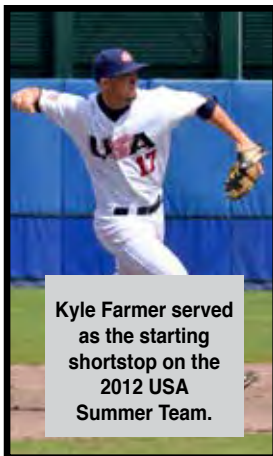

COLLEGIATE NATIONAL TEAM (Summer)

1987 Cris Carpenter, RHP (Gainesville, Ga.)
(1.37 ERA, 5 SV, 59.1 IP, 69 Ks, USA Record 32 games pitched)
Team: 34-9, Silver Medal in Pan Am Games and Intercon. Cup

1989 Dave Fleming, LHP (Mahopac, N.Y.)
(*6-3, 6.32 ERA, 14 games, 8 starts), *TPosted a team-high 6 wins.
Team: 27-17, 6th in Intercontinental Cup (1-5)

1994 Brian Powell, RHP (Bainbridge, Ga.)
(2-2, 4.76 ERA, 9 games, 7 starts)

Team: 24-13, 4-4 in World Championships, 6th Place

2002 Clint Sammons, C (Stone Mountain, Ga.)
(8 games, 5 starts before hit by a pitch in a game that broke his wrist and ended his tour. Perfect fielding percentage with 63 putouts, 11 assists, threw out 33% of runners, two pickoffs, batted .100-0-2 in 20 at bats);
Team: 23-7, 2nd at FISU World Championships

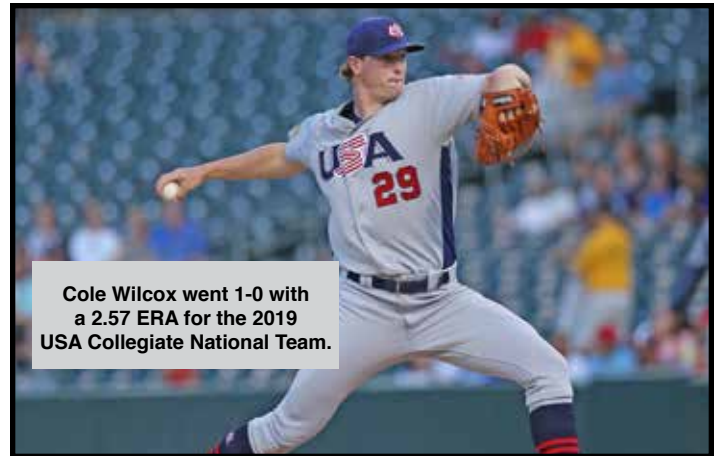

Kyle Farmer served as the starting shortstop on the 2012 USA Summer Team.

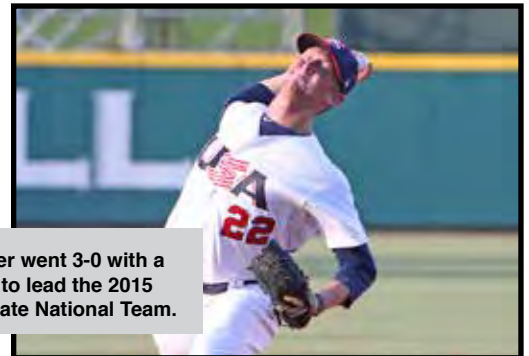

2012 Kyle Farmer, SS (Atlanta, Ga.)
(17 games, .250 with five doubles, eight RBI and a .967 FLDG.%)
Starting shortstop helped team go 12-5 and a bronze medal in the Netherlands. Four of team's five losses came to Cuba that had 12 World Baseball Classic veterans. Farmer had 3 RBI during medal round of the tournament. The team went 2-3 against Cuba in Havana and was the first U.S. squad to travel there in 16 years.

2015 Robert Tyler, RHP (Cordele, Ga.)
(3-0, 1.00 ERA, 3 games, 2 starts)
Led Team USA with 3-0 record. Won both starts including Opening Day and the clinching-victory over Cuba in front of a sellout crowd of 10,352 fans in Charlotte at BB&T Ballpark as team went 9-8 overall.

2019 Cole Wilcox, RHP (Chickamauga, Ga.)
(1-0, 2.57 ERA, 4 games, 1 start)
Pitched three scoreless innings for a win over Cuba...Tossed 2.2 scoreless innings as part of a combined one-hit shutout versus Japan...Held opponents to a .217 batting average...Team went 8-6 overall with series wins over Chinese Taipei and Cuba.

Cole Wilcox went 1-0 with a 2.57 ERA for the 2019 USA Collegiate National Team.

Robert Tyler went 3-0 with a 1.00 ERA to lead the 2015 USA Collegiate National Team.

2015 Team USA Flashback Tyler Helps USA Clinch Series Over Cuba

A July 4th start against Cuba in front of a sellout crowd at BB&T Ballpark in Charlotte, Tyler pitched four scoreless innings in an 11-1 series-clinching victory in front of 10,352 fans. It matched the largest win over Cuba in national team history. He allowed only a two-out double in his final inning of work.

Georgia pitcher Brian Powell was a member of the 1994 USA squad that had six SEC players.

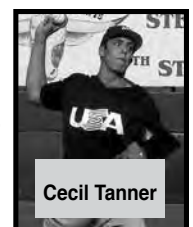

Clint Sammons was part of the 2002 USA Team.

The 1990 season will long be remembered as the finest ever produced at Georgia.

Catcher Terry Childers' play in the seventh preserved a 2-1 lead as Stan Payne and Dave Fleming combined to lead the Bulldogs to the national title.

Georgia was invited to Washington D.C., to discuss the strategy they used with President George Bush, a baseball letterman in his collegiate days at Yale.

Steve Webber compiled a 500-403-1 record in 16 seasons (1981-96) as the head coach at Georgia. He led the Bulldogs to two College World Series appearances (1987, '90), including a national championship in 1990. After his Georgia coaching career, Webber has served as a pitching coach in the following organizations: New York Yankees, San Diego Padres, Houston Astros and Atlanta Braves. He was inducted into UGA's Circle of Honor in 2018. Webber passed away in 2022.

1990 College World Series All-Tournament Team

Pitchers (2): Dave Fleming and Mike Rebhan, Georgia;

Catcher: Michael Daniel, Okla. State; First Base: Doug Radziewicz, Georgia; Second Base: Troy Paulsen, Stanford; Shortstop: Brad Beanblossom, Okla. State; Third Base: Bobby Carlsen, Okla. State; Outfield (3): Jeffrey Hammonds, Stanford, Tim Clark, LSU, Jason Rychlick, Citadel; Designated Hitter: Lyle Mouton, LSU; +1990 CWS MVP: Mike Rebhan, Georgia

+CWS Note: In 1996, the CWS celebrated its 50th anniversary. All-Decade teams were selected by a panel and Rebhan made it for the 1990s. In the series, he beat Stanford's Mike Mussina twice, going 2-0 with a 1.00 ERA and two complete games.

25th Year Anniversary Of The 1990 National Champions

A total of more than 20 members of the 1990 national championship team returned to Foley Field in 2015 to highlight Lettermen's Day. Head coach Steve Webber threw out the first pitch to catcher Terry Childers while shortstop J.R. Showalter received one of the Distinguished Letterman's Award for Outstanding Athletic Achievement.

NATIONAL AWARDS

THE JOHN OLERUD AWARD

The John Olerud Two-Way Player of the Year Award is presented annually by the College Baseball Foundation. Olerud, who was inducted into the National College Baseball Hall of Fame in 2007, was a standout pitcher and first baseman at Washington State from 1987 through 1989. The first award was presented in 2010. Georgia's Aaron Schunk was the 2019 recipient after being a finalist in 2018. He is the only Bulldog to win the award. In his Bulldog career (2017-19), he played in 154 games with 153 starts. A second round draft pick of the Colorado Rockies in 2019, he batted .339 with 15 home runs and 58 RBI as a junior plus tallied 12 saves to go with a 1-2 mark and 2.49 ERA in 17 appearances. Schunk ranks among the top prospects in the Rockies organization, and in 2022, he had reached Double-A, playing with Hartford.

THE STOPPER OF THE YEAR AWARD

Presented by the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association of America (NCBWA) since 2005, this award goes to the top relief pitcher in NCAA Division 1. In 2008, Georgia All-America closer Joshua Fields posted 18 saves to claim the award as he helped guide the Bulldogs the finals of the College World Series. A first round draft pick of Seattle, he made his MLB debut in 2013 and spent six years in the Majors. He was a part of two World Series teams with the Los Angeles Dodgers.

THE GOLDEN SPIKES AWARD

The Golden Spikes award is given annually to the top amateur baseball player in America. Eight former Bulldogs have been nominated for this prestigious honor including first round picks Emerson Hancock (2020), Gordon Beckham (right) and Joshua Fields in 2008 and second round pick Rich Poythress in 2009. Hancock was a semifinalist in 2019. Hancock and Cole Wilcox made the 2020 preseason watch list, however the award was not presented due to the COVID-19 pandemic canceling much of the season.

Beckham was a finalist for the award while Fields and Poythress were semifinalists. In 1987, not only was it a banner year for the Bulldogs as a team, but also for some individuals. Pitchers Cris Carpenter and Derek Lilliquist were tabbed as nominees for the award. It marked only the second time that two teammates were nominated in the same year. In 1990 former Bulldog pitcher Dave Fleming, who led Georgia to its first-ever national championship, was nominated.

The winner is automatically enshrined in the United States Baseball Federation's Amateur Baseball Hall of Fame. His named is also added to the permanent Golden Spikes Award at the National Baseball Hall of Fame. In addition, the winner also becomes the USBF's nominee for the AAU's Sullivan Award, which goes to the nation's top amateur athlete.

DEFENSIVE RECORDS

GOLD GLOVE AWARDS

2007: Jonathan Wyatt, OF
2008: Rich Poythress, 1B
2019: Cam Shepherd, SS

Beginning in 2007, the American Baseball Coaches Association (ABCA) along with Rawlings Sporting Goods began a program where Rawlings Gold Glove Awards were presented to NCAA Division I players. Nomination and voting criteria are the same as the ABCA Rawlings All-Region and All-American Awards, which are collegiate baseball's oldest selections, dating back to 1949. The players and their schools each receive a Rawlings Gold Glove Award.

Georgia outfielder Jonathan Wyatt was one of the nine inaugural recipients in 2007. He led all SEC outfielders with a perfect 1.000 Fielding Percentage in 164 total chances in his final season with the Bulldogs. He was a 13th-round pick of the Chicago Cubs.

Rich Poythress received national recognition for his stellar play at first base for the SEC champion Bulldogs in 2008, earning a Gold Glove Award. He recorded a .995 fielding percentage in 69 starts with a school record 55 assists to go with 535 putouts in helping the team reach the College World Series Finals. Poythress finished his career with a .993 Fielding Percentage (1323 PO, 127 A, 10 E). He was a second round pick of the Seattle Mariners in 2009.

Cam Shepherd earned a Gold Glove in 2019 after setting a school record with a .987 fielding percentage at shortstop. Shepherd became the first shortstop on the All-SEC Defensive Team to go the entire league schedule without an error. He has started every game at shortstop the past three seasons (2017-19), a span of 180 games. A 20th round pick of the Tampa Bay Rays in 2019, he opted to return for his senior year and then signed as a free agent with Atlanta in 2020.

THE BERT KIZER AWARD

The Bert Kizer Award is named annually to the Georgia baseball letterman, who in his first year, displayed exemplary achievement in the combined areas of academics, athletics and citizenship.

The award was established during the 1991 season. Bert Kizer was a loyal Georgia Baseball supporter for a number of years. In fact, his two sons, Bubba and Craig, both lettered for the Bulldogs. Bubba was an All-America infielder who recorded a career .346 batting average from 1976-78. Craig lettered in 1981-82 and posted a career pitching record of 6-2.

JIM UMBRIGHT AWARD

The Jim Umbricht Award is given annually to the Georgia player considered the "most competitive" by the Bulldog coaching staff. The award is sponsored by former Georgia player Johnny Clifton (1951-53) of Atlanta.

Jim Umbricht was a two-sport great at the University of Georgia in the early 1950s. In 1952, he was named captain of both the Bulldog baseball and basketball teams, playing short-stop and guard, respectively. From Georgia, he went on to a successful professional baseball career. He spent time with the Pittsburgh Pirates and the Houston Colt .45s. He was part of the Pirates World Series Championship team in 1960. In 1963, he was named Major League Baseball's Comeback Player-of-the-Year. He died in 1964 at the age of 33 after a bout with cancer.

ALL-TIME LETTERMEN

MORTON HODGSON: One of the Best Ever

Morton Hodgson (1906-09) not only was a starter for four years in baseball, he lettered in football, basketball and track. He was Georgia's first four-letter athlete. A hometown hero, he hit .333 on the 1908 championship squad that was considered one of the greatest teams ever fielded by the University. The pitching staff was so strong it shut out 12 opponents, six in succession. He was named to Grantland Rice's All-Southern team.

His sons were stellar athletes for the Bulldogs and two of his grandsons lettered in football under Coach Vince Dooley. He is the only Georgia player to have a son and two grandsons letter in football at Georgia.

The 1975 Team: In Big Jim Whatley's "swan song" as the Bulldog baseball coach, Georgia captured the SEC Eastern Division title. The players included senior captain Phil Baker, All SEC outfielders Larry Littleton and Bubba Wilson and one of the top hitters in the SEC in Ted Dieter. On the mound, these Bulldogs were led by All-SEC hurlers Bill Ivie and Mickey Register along with Mike Keepers and Wayne LaHullier.

Chris Singleton Returns To UGA In 2022

Chris Singleton, who lost his mother in the 2015 mass shooting at a church in Charleston, S.C., returned to UGA and visited with the Bulldogs in 2022. It was a part of his "Love is Stronger than Hate" lecture. He has become an inspirational speaker, sharing his message with collegiate and professional teams. An outfielder for Charleston Southern in college, he faced the Bulldogs at Foley Field in 2016. Singleton later played professionally in the Chicago Cubs organization.

A Legacy Of Strength

Bulldog standouts Chance Veazey and Johnathan Taylor were honored before the win over South Carolina on March 24, 2018, and a unique permanent display on the Foley Field concourse was unveiled celebrating “A Legacy of Strength.”

Both of their baseball careers were cut short by life-altering accidents at UGA. Their ability to persevere serves an inspiration to all those who know them and their stories. Both graduated in 2013 and live and work in their Georgia hometowns: Veazey in Tifton and Taylor in Acworth. The display features augmented reality and its own app that fans can download on their mobile device titled “A Legacy of Strength.”

Once you download the app, open it and point your camera at the display, then watch at both the story being told and the technology that makes what you’re seeing possible.

In December of 2013, Bulldogs Johnathan Taylor, Brett DeLoach and Chance Veazey earned their degrees from UGA.

The Taylor and Veazey families along with several of their teammates, athletic trainer Mike Dillon and their head coach David Perno returned to UGA and Foley Field to honor Chance and JT in 2018.

COACHING HISTORY & HONORS

BULLDOG LORE

While C.E. Morris served as the coach for Georgia's first team in 1886, Hughie Jennings is credited with being the Bulldogs' first official coach. He played for 17 years in the Major Leagues while also managing the Detroit Tigers from 1907-20. He was the second shortstop and among the first 35 men elected to the Hall of Fame. Former Bulldog Claude Derrick began his career with the Philadelphia Athletics in 1909 and played on two World Championship teams in 1910 and 1911. In 1912 with Baltimore, Derrick was the first roommate of rookie George Herman Ruth, better known as "The Babe."

Ike Cousins Head Baseball Coach Scott Stricklin enters the 2022 season with 620 career wins.

WEBBER JOINS CIRCLE OF HONOR IN 2018

The Circle of Honor is the UGA Athletic Association's all sports recognition program which is designed to pay tribute to extraordinary University of Georgia student-athletes and coaches who by their performance and conduct have brought honor to the university and themselves, and who by their actions have contributed to the tradition of the Georgia Bulldogs. The criteria for selection also stipulate that each recipient has earned his or her academic degree.

Steve Webber, who is the winningest baseball coach in Georgia history with 500 victories between 1981 and 1996, was part of the Circle of Honor Class of 2018. He led Georgia to its first two College World Series appearances including winning the 1990 national championship, the first for the Southeastern Conference in the sport.

At the time of his induction, the native Iowan and graduate of Southern Illinois University, was just the fifth among all 79 inductees that are not UGA alumni. Webber passed away in 2022.

Jim Whatley (left) won 337 games in his Bulldog career while Steve Webber (right) won 500 games as the Georgia skipper. In 2018, Webber was inducted into UGA's exclusive Circle of Honor.

University of Georgia student-athletes have a tremendous championship tradition to uphold. They carry the spirit and the pride for all students, alumni and supporters of UGA. The tradition of athletic and academic excellence at UGA is made possible by scholarships that provide these young people the opportunity to become successful, well-educated citizens, distinguished alumni and supporters of UGA.

A donor may endow a named scholarship for a UGA student-athlete with a significant gift. Although the donor cannot select the specific scholarship recipients, he or she can designate his/her support to a specific sport. Currently, there are six baseball scholarship endowments.

For more information about the Athletic Scholarship Endowment Program, the Coaching Endowment program or other giving opportunities, please contact The Georgia Bulldog Club at (877) 423-2947.

Leon Farmer Scholarship Endowment

Leon Farmer Jr., and Leon Farmer III, UGA alumni from Athens, have fully funded four scholarships for student-athletes in football, men's basketball, baseball and gymnastics in memory of Leon "Sarge" Farmer, a popular UGA and Athens High ROTC instructor and founder of Leon Farmer and Company.
